

Profile Software becomes new strategic owner of Euronext Centevo, Euronext Centevo is now part of the leading Fintech player in Europe

Centevo's employees and our board are pleased to announce that after a thorough process, Profile Software has become the new owner of Euronext Centevo by acquiring 100% of shares from Euronext Nordics Holding AS.

"We are confident that Profile Software, an international financial software solution provider, will be a strong and active owner of Euronext Centevo to deliver the best to our customers.

The new owner is committed to Centevo's Nordic strategy and acknowledges the importance of local competence and local presence to succeed in a fast-moving industry".

Enhanced offer to our clients

Being a part of Profile Software fits perfectly into Euronext Centevo's strategy which is to be the leading Asset Manager solutions provider in the Nordics.

Euronext Centevo is now part of a European provider of Banking and Investment Management solutions which delivers top-tier technological innovation, award-winning and flexible solutions developed with the highest standards. Out of this deal, we see a lot of complementarities and synergies to the benefit of our clients.

Our customer promise

Our local industry knowledge, experience and high service level are very important to our clients and partners, and it is a big part of our DNA. With Profile as a new strong owner, we aim to be the best service provider for our clients. We will keep all employees and continue to employ new talents in order to meet future demand.

This commitment assures that our clients can rely on our competence without altering anything on our business relationship. As part of the transaction, Euronext Centevo and Euronext VPS will maintain their existing relationships, avoiding any disruptions to Euronext Centevo's clients.
